Guest Editor's Note

Professor Agnieszka Brelik

It is my great honor and pleasure to act as the Guest Editor for issue 4B 2017 of the European Research Studies Journal on its 20th anniversary. It was a challenge for me working with a team of distinguished colleagues from several countries on the preparation of the issue.

All articles were selected based on specific criteria set by the Guest Editorial Board, appointed for this issue of the journal in accordance with the Code of Ethics and the Basic Requirements for Publication that have been adopted by the Journal since its circulation in 1998.

As the Guest Editor of this volume I am very thankful to the members of the Editorial Board consisting of 21 colleagues from 17 different countries. I am also thankful to the Guest Co-Editor Professor Simon Grima from University of Malta and the Editor-in-Chief of ERSJ Professor El Thalassinis for their effective cooperation in the preparation stage of this volume. For the successful completion the Guest Editorial Board has followed the double blind method in the evaluation process of each article according to their professional and academic experience.

In this issue of ERSJ we have published several articles selected among others after a peer evaluation by the Guest Editorial Board members. It is in the intention of the Journal to take opportunities disseminating scientific research from colleagues from all over the world. I strongly believe that some of the publications are of high quality with innovative ideas that can be adopted easily for the benefit of the economies they are referred to.

ERSJ Editor's Note

ERSJ celebrates its 20th anniversary in 2017 with the publication of issues dedicated to international conferences, special events, economic and business themes and more.

Selected articles have been included in this issue covering economic and business disciplines after an extensive evaluation procedure set by the Guest Editorial Board.

I would like to take this opportunity to express my sincere thanks to all the members of the Board for their collaborative behavior, especially to the Guest Editor Professor Agnieszka Brelik for her cooperation in the preparation of this issue. Her intervention was always valuable and very helpful.

It was a great honor for me to cooperate with all the authors, to read all the articles getting a very good understanding of the content, the conclusions and the methodology used in each one of the articles where I had an interest. Recommendations and conclusions included in the published articles could be of great importance in case they were adopted by the corresponding bodies.

After 20 years of publication experience I would like to congratulate my cooperatives from several countries for their valuable comments and their help in the circulation of ERSJ.

Professor El Thalassinos
European Chair Jean Monnet
